

INNOVATIONS ENGAGEMENT INTAKE FORM

Request for Information: The U.S. commercial sector is driving technological advancements that provide our Nation and Allies a distinct advantage over our competitors and their disruptive actions that intentionally challenge our military effectiveness. USSPACECOM will continue to find ways to integrate innovative commercial capabilities into the Command's warfighting architecture in order to fill operational gaps, increase enterprise resiliency, and maintain the strategic advantage.

Please note, meetings will be set up for companies who are applying for a current open solicitation cycle from the pre-release date of the solicitation cycle that they are applying for until TWO WEEKS before the solicitation cycle that they are applying for closes. Companies not applying for a current open solicitation cycle will still have a meeting set up but only during the time frame of the solicitation cycle they are applying for.**
